

U.S. Consulate Quiz Rules and Regulations

Winners are chosen from the correct answers written in the comment box of each quiz post. Answers may be written in either English or Arabic. Quiz participants may only submit one eligible answer, if more than one answer is provided only the first will be considered. After each quiz, all eligible correct answers will be entered into a drawing and at noon the following day five first place winners will be announced for the first place prize. Winners will be contacted via Private Message on Facebook to provide mailing information for their first place prize. Winners will be publicly announced on Facebook. Employees or dependents of employees of U.S. government agencies or U.S. government financed or partially financed organizations are ineligible to receive a prize. First place winners become ineligible for subsequent quiz first prizes. American citizens are ineligible for first place prizes. First place winners must be resident in either Jerusalem, the West Bank, or the Gaza Strip.
